Introduction to CASH GlobalView – This course is targeted for those needing to learn how to analyze and report portfolio concentrations, risks and trends. Learn how to edit the calculations used with CASH Insight and how to create additional "custom" calculations for use in assessing portfolio performance. Learn how to stress test the C&I, Consumer, and CRE portfolios. Learn how to create, save and reuse ad-hoc reports so that you can report against your analytical needs - even as they evolve over time.
